Announcing Major New Support for Judge Carr!

The Judge Carr for D.A. general election campaign is releasing its first major endorsements. Included among those recently giving Judge Carr their support in her campaign for Santa Clara County District Attorney are:

- Santa Clara County Sheriff Laurie Smith—who joins the Santa Clara County Deputy Sheriffs Association in supporting Judge Carr!
- Marc Buller—who was a candidate for the office during the primary election campaign, and who was recently appointed Chief Assistant, the number two position in the office, by retiring District Attorney George Kennedy.
- Santa Clara County Supervisor Peter McHugh—whose endorsement as District 3 Supervisor gives Judge Carr endorsements from a majority of members on the County Board of Supervisors.
- Christopher Arriola, Past President, California La Raza Lawyers—also past president of the Santa Clara County La Raza Lawyers and active in leadership of the County Bar Association
- Gilroy and Morgan Hill Police Officer Associations—whose endorsements give Judge Carr unanimous support from all local police officers associations in the county that have made endorsements in the race (San Jose, Sunnyvale, Milpitas, Mountain View, Palo Alto, Gilroy, Morgan Hill).
- Michael E. Fox, Sr. and Michael E. Fox Jr.—highly respected and influential local business and community leaders.

Please visit www.judgecarrforda.com for complete endorsement and campaign information. Judge Carr finished first in the June primary election with 42 percent of the votes cast – eight percentage points ahead of her nearest competitor!
