

■ Judge Biafore: Dolores Carr Clearly the best Choice for SC County District Attorney

Dear Editor,

I respectfully disagree with your recommendation for district attorney as published in the Gilroy Dispatch on Friday, Oct. 6. While it is true that both candidates are highly qualified and well-respected, voters should elect Dolores Carr as the next district attorney of Santa Clara County. Having been an attorney and trial court judge in this county for over 40 years combined, I believe that I have had an opportunity to observe both candidates in a variety of situations and I have a different perspective as to the most qualified candidate to fill the position of district attorney.

I encourage the voters to cast their votes intelligently and to elect Judge Dolores Carr as the next district attorney of Santa Clara County.

Dolores Carr
